NEGIMA!™

MAGISTER NEGI MAGI

KEN AKAMATSU

CREATOR OF LOVE HINA!

A Word from the Author

Here it is, Volume 3 of Negima! Volume 3 is the first Negima! that uses a whole volume for a single story. It's called the "Evangeline Edition."

How in the world will Negi-kun, who as an honor student who graduated top of the class from a magic school, and has yet to run into any particularly serious barriers, continue to grow up when he encounters new formidable enemies and friends he comes to depend on? What is the secret of the Thousand Master who pursues Negi!? And what is the partner binding system!?

Usually there are only nine chapters in a volume but, this time, we've packed in ten, so there's plenty to enjoy. Well then, take your time and enjoy (ha ha)!

THERE'S A BREAK BETWEEN EDITIONS BUT NO TIME OFF.
OH! FORGIVE ME.
THERE'S NOT EVEN TIME TO GO TO THE TOILET, MASTER...
FIDGET SQUIRM

By the way, looks like there's gonna be a stream of some pretty big news through autumn 2004. For more information, please check out the official site below. You can also access it from your mobile phone. I update my blog every day.

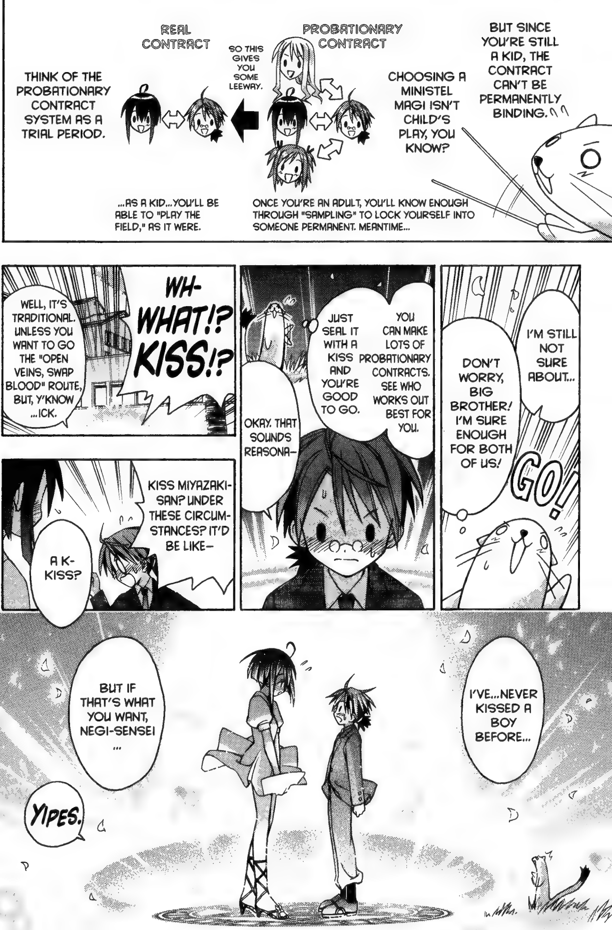
YOU'LL BE FINE! IT'S A STANDARD MAGIC CIRCLE FOR ENTERING INTO A PROBATIONARY PARTNER CONTRACT.
PROBATIONARY CONTRACT!?
RIGHT.
ONCE ENTERED, THE CONTRACT ENABLES THE MINISTEL MAGI TO PROTECT AND HELP THE WIZARD.
MAGIC POWER
THE MINISTEL MAGI RECEIVES MAGIC POWERS FROM THE WIZARD, PLUS TEN TIMES THEIR NORMAL PHYSICAL ENERGY. IT'S ALL GOOD!
POWER UP!
YEAH, MAYBE TOO GOOD.



BUT SINCE YOU'RE STILL A KID, THE CONTRACT CAN'T BE PERMANENTLY BINDING.
CHOOSING A MINISTEL MAGI ISN'T CHILD'S PLAY, YOU KNOW?
PROBATIONARY CONTRACT
SO THIS GIVES YOU SOME LEEWAY.
REAL CONTRACT
THINK OF THE PROBATIONARY CONTRACT SYSTEM AS A TRIAL PERIOD.
ONCE YOU'RE AN ADULT, YOU'LL KNOW ENOUGH THROUGH "SAMPLING" TO LOCK YOURSELF INTO SOMEONE PERMANENT. MEANTIME...
...AS A KID...YOU'LL BE ABLE TO "PLAY THE FIELD," AS IT WERE.
YOU CAN MAKE LOTS OF PROBATIONARY CONTRACTS. SEE WHO WORKS OUT BEST FOR YOU.
JUST SEAL IT WITH A KISS AND YOU'RE GOOD TO GO.
OKAY. THAT SOUNDS REASONA–
WH-WHAT!? KISS!?
WELL, IT'S TRADITIONAL. UNLESS YOU WANT TO GO THE "OPEN VEINS, SWAP BLOOD" ROUTE, BUT, Y'KNOW ...ICK.

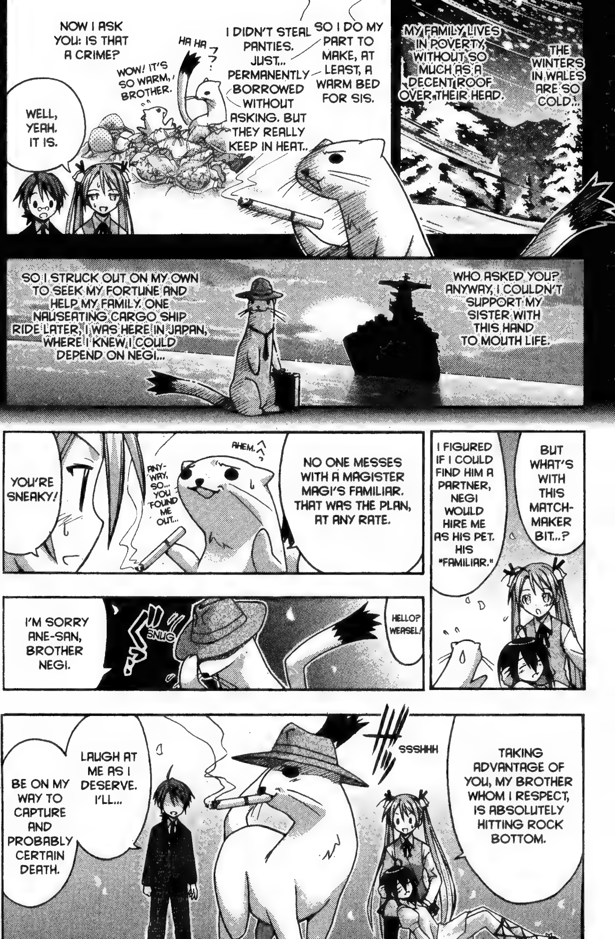
LIES, ALL OF THEM! I WAS SET UP! FRAMED! I'M INNOCENT, I TELL YA!
WHY DON'T I BELIEVE HIM?
OKAY, FINE. THE TRUTH IS, I HAVE A SICKLY YOUNGER SISTER...



THE WINTERS IN WALES ARE SO COLD...
MY FAMILY LIVES IN POVERTY, WITHOUT SO MUCH AS A DECENT ROOF OVER THEIR HEAD.
SO I DO MY PART TO MAKE, AT LEAST, A WARM BED FOR SIS.
I DIDN'T STEAL PANTIES. JUST... PERMANENTLY BORROWED WITHOUT ASKING. BUT THEY REALLY KEEP IN HEAT..
HA HA ??
WOW! IT'S SO WARM, BROTHER.
NOW I ASK YOU: IS THAT A CRIME?
WELL, YEAH. IT IS.
WHO ASKED YOU? ANYWAY, I COULDN'T SUPPORT MY SISTER WITH THIS HAND TO MOUTH LIFE.
SO I STRUCK OUT ON MY OWN TO SEEK MY FORTUNE AND HELP MY FAMILY. ONE NAUSEATING CARGO SHIP RIDE LATER, I WAS HERE IN JAPAN, WHERE I KNEW I COULD DEPEND ON NEGI...
BUT WHAT'S WITH THIS MATCH-MAKER BIT...?
I FIGURED IF I COULD FIND HIM A PARTNER, NEGI WOULD HIRE ME AS HIS PET. HIS "FAMILIAR."

INSTEAD SHE'S GOT SOME SORT OF POWERS THAT SHE'S LOST AND, BECAUSE OF THAT, MADE HERSELF OVER INTO SOME... SOME PSEUDO VAMPIRE.
BUT WHY? WHY WOULD SHE DO THAT? EMULATE A VAMPIRE?
AND FOR OVER FIFTEEN YEARS, AT LEAST, ACCORDING TO MY ERMINE BROTHER. I WONDER HOW OLD SHE REALLY IS?
AND WHAT IS UP WITH CHACHAMARU-SAN...?
WHY DID THE THOUSAND MASTER CURSE EVA IN THE FIRST PLACE? IS CHACHAMARU PART OF IT SOMEHOW?
WHAT'S THE CONNECTION?
IT'S A LOT TO THINK ABOUT. HUNH. MAYBE THERE'S SOMETHING AROUND HERE TO SHED SOME LIGHT. OLD PHOTOS, MAYBE...

Negima! Glossary Of Spells

Sixteenth Period

Undecim spiritus aerials, vinculum facti iimicum captent. Sagitta magica, aer Capturae. ("11 wind spirits, become a chain that binds and capture my enemy.") Magic that uses the wind to restrain enemies. It is a weak attack and had little effect on the experienced Evangeline.

Reflexio. ("Ice Shield.") A magic shield that is conjured to repel the attacking magic from an enemy. Evangeline is skilled at ice magic so she conjured an "ice shield." Reflexio corresponds to the English reflection.

Seventeenth Period

Frigerans Exarmatio. ("Release freeze weapon.") Magic that, without causing any frostbite injury to the opponent, freezes the things attached to the body and shatters them, disarming the enemy. Control over complicated magic power is necessary to wield this spell. However, metal and other types of hard materials cannot be shattered, so the most you can do is buy some time against these types of items.

Evocatio valcyriarum, contubernalia gladiaria. ("I summon the wind spirit!! Sword-wielding brothers in arms!!") The word walkyria has been Latinized, but corresponds to the old Nordic valkyrie, referring here to a "person who chooses immortality." In short, what Negi is summoning is an immortal god. Odin's handmaidens, who appear in Wagner's opera, are popular valkryies, but throughout this work, the term is used as a neuter noun and not a proper entity. "Age capiant" is a form of address that means, "please capture."

Flans exarmatio. ("Wind flower, disarm weapon.") This is, in fact, the magic that appears most frequently in Negima! The incantation blows off with a powerful wind items attached to an opponent's body . Clothing and other light things are changed into flower petals. The sole purpose is to disarm an opponent of weapons, so no matter strong the wind is, it will not blow away the opponent herself. When Negi sneezes and blows off the clothes of Asuna and friends, this is the explosion of this magic. Refer to the First, Second, Fifth, Sixth, and Twelfth Periods. (From the Seventeenth Period on.)

Nineteenth Period

Practe bigi nar. This is the "magic release key" and is not a Latin language spell. The formal "release key" is created by each student individually upon graduation from magic school, but practe bigi nar is an apprenticeship key given to a schoolchild.

Pactio. ("Probationary Contract.") A spell to enter a probationary contract between a wizard (magus) and a partner (minister) that brings about ecstacy in order to draw out both parties' consciousness from within their egos. A ceremony is necessary for the spell to work. The word pactio itself does not indicate that the spell is probationary; this is the same as the proper, permanent contract spell. However, stronger contract magic is used for the so-called real contract. When a wizard enters a probationary contract, certain powers are attained.

Twentieth Period

Sis mea pars per decem secundas. Ministra Negi, Asuna Kagurazaka. ("Contract executed in 10 seconds. Minister Negi, Asuna Kagurazaka.") A spell that sends a wizard's own magic power to the person with whom that wizard has entered a probationary contract; in this case, from Negi to Asuna. Sis mea pars means you are a part of me. If the contract is incomplete, there are restrictions on the magic powers sent, and it appears that with Negi and friends they were able to use the contract's power only during the first 10 seconds. If the contract is renewed correctly, the magic powers can be used for another 90 seconds (per nonaginta secundas).

Undecem spiritus lucis, coeuntes sagitent inimicum. Sagitta magica, series lucis. (11 spirits of light, come gather [shoot the enemy]; Magic Archer, consecutive bursts, 11 arrows of light) A basic battle spell. Light spirit version. Serius lucis means "range of light."

Twenty-Second Period

Nympha somni, regina Mab, portam aperiens ad se me alliciat.("I invoke Queen Mab, the Dream Fairy, open the door and invite me into dreams.") Magic that lets you see into sleeping people's dreams. Mab is the name of a queen who appears in a Celtic myth. She is thought of as a fairy who controls dreams.

Manmanterroterro. The Thousand Master's "release key." A style that's changed considerably.

Infernus scholasticus. (School hell.) A very strange curse. In the past, it was used for making dropouts go to school. This curse has tormented Evangeline for over 15 years.

Twenty-Third—Twenty-Fifth Periods

Aer et aqua, facti nebula illis somnum brevem. Nebula hypnotica. ("Atmosphere. Water. White fog, seep. Give them repose, make them sleep.") Magic that conjures a fog that makes your opponent sleep.

Lic lac la lac lilac. Evangeline's "release key." Lilac thrives where things are difficult to grow, and when a flower is brought inside the house, it brings evil with it. In the language of flowers, the incantation refers to "purity" and "first love."

Septendecim spiritus glaciales, coeuntes inimicum concidant . SAGITTA MAGICA, SERIES GLACIALIS. ("17 Ice Spirits, come gather and rip apart my enemy"; "Magic Archer. Consecutive bursts. Eleven ice arrows.") The ice version of the "Magic Archer." Several sharp ice pillars attack the enemy.

Nivis casus. ("Ice explosion.") Magic that makes large volumes of ice appear in the air and attacks the opponent with both frosty air and a blast of wind. Nivis casus means "avalanche".

Veniant spiritus aerials fulgurientes, cum fulgurationi flet tempestas austrina. Jovis tempestas fulguriens. ("Ice spirits on high, fill the sky. Tundra and Glaciers on the run from the land of midnight sun"; "Frozen earth.") Attacks with huge ice pillars that come from the earth in an instant. If not dodged effectively, your feet become frozen to the ground and you aren't able to move. For enemies that can't fly, this magic is very effective to use before an attack.

Septendecim spiritus aerials, coeuntes...Sagitta maigca, wries fulguralis. ("17 Wind Spirits. Come gather..."; "Magic Archer, Consecutive blasts, 17 arrows of thunder.") The lightning version of "Magic Archer." If the user's power becomes too weak it also can be used to stun.

Undetriginta spiritus obscuri...Sagitta magica, series obscuri. ("29 Spirits of Darkness..."; "Magic Archer, consecutive blasts, 29 arrow of darkness.") The dark version of "Magic Archer." It's unknown what kind of power is in the flying dark bullet.

Undetriginata spiritus lucis...Sagitta magica, series lucis. ("29 spirits of light..."; "Magic Archer, consecutive blasts, 29 arrows of light.") Constitutes the opposite of the magic written above. Besides the fact that one is obscuri (dark) and one is lucis (light), they are parallel spells.

Veniant spiritus aerials fulgurientes, cum fulgurationi flet tempestas austrina. Jovis tempestas. ("Come wind, thunder spirits. Blow violently with thunder, Storm of the South Seas.") Magic that conjures a strong whirlwind and lightning that attacks the enemy. Jovis is another name for the king of Roman gods, Jupiter, who is thought to use lightning as a weapon. In short, Jovis tempestas means "Jupiter's storm that unleashes lightning."

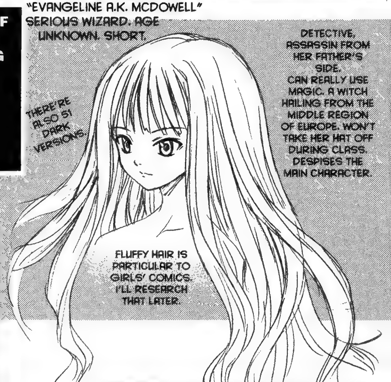
Veniant spiritus glaciales obscurants, cum obscurationi flet tempestas nivalis. Nivis tempestas obscurans. ("Darkness obey, a blizzard, ice and snow of the night."; "Blizzard of darkness.") Magic that conjures a strong blizzard and darkness that attacks the enemy. As you might have noticed, there are several similar points with the spell above. It seems that Evangeline chose the same type of spells in order to fight Negi. Nivis tempestas obscurans means "snowstorm that brings darkness."

Mea virga. (My wand.) The words used to call the wand that Negi received from the Thousand Master. Mea means "my" and virga means "wand."

COMPILATION OF MATERIAL FOR THE BEGINNING SETTINGS OF NEGIMA!

THE ORIGINAL CHARACTER SKETCHES

WELL, THIS IS THE ORIGINAL CHARACTER SKETCH OF EVANGELINE. KINDA SAYS "WHAT THE HECK?" (HA HA.) I WANTED TO SEE HOW THE DARK VERSION WOULD LOOK, TOO. AROUND THE STUDIO, WE CALL HER "THE MASTER."



"EVANGELINE A.K. MCDOWELL"
SERIOUS WIZARD. AGE UNKNOWN. SHORT.
DETECTIVE, ASSASSIN FROM HER FATHER'S SIDE. CAN REALLY USE MAGIC. A WITCH HAILING FROM THE MIDDLE REGION OF EUROPE. WON'T TAKE HER HAT OFF DURING CLASS. DESPISES THE MAIN CHARACTER.
THERE'RE ALSO 51 DARK VERSIONS.

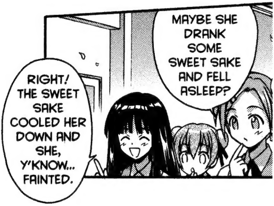
Translation Notes

Japanese is a tricky language for most westerners, and translation is often more art than science. For your edification and reading pleasure, here are notes on some of the places where we could have gone in a different direction in our translation of the work, or where a Japanese cultural reference is used.

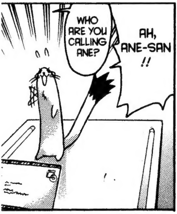
Sweet sake, page 15



MAYBE SHE DRANK SOME SWEET SAKE AND FELL ASLEEP?
RIGHT! THE SWEET SAKE COOLED HER DOWN AND SHE, Y'KNOW... FAINTED.

We've used the phrase sweet sake here, instead of the actual Japanese term that appeared in the original, amazake. Amazake, which most Japanese are familiar with, is a drink brewed from rice and malt usually drunk in the spring or summer.

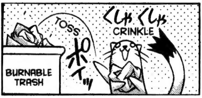
Ane-san, page 65



AH, ANE-SAN !!
WHO ARE YOU CALLING ANE?

Ane-san is a generic term for a girl, usually older, that means sister. It can be construed as rude or too informal, although it's more likely in this case that Albert Chamomile is just trying to ingratiate himself with Asuna so she won't kick him out.

Garbage, page 66

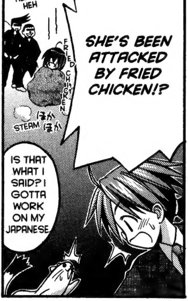


くしゃくしゃ
CRINKLE
ポイッ
TOSS
BURNABLE TRASH

Chamo may be destroying the evidence, but at least he's conscientious about it. Dividing garbage in Japan can be a complicated business. Trash is usually divided into burnables, nonburnables, and recyclables.

Karaage, page 67

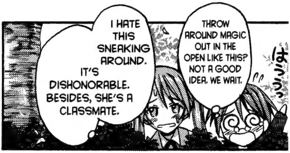
Chamo rushes in to tell Negi that Nodoka is being attacked by karaage, which is Japanese-style fried chicken. Chamo's next comment in the original text is that he's really got to work on his Japanese—remember, he's from Wales, like young Negi. Problem is, the joke doesn't really work in English so we modified it a wee bit.



HEH
SHE'S BEEN ATTACKED BY FRIED CHICKEN!?
FRIED CHICKEN
STEAM
ほかほか
IS THAT WHAT I SAID? I GOTTA WORK ON MY JAPANESE

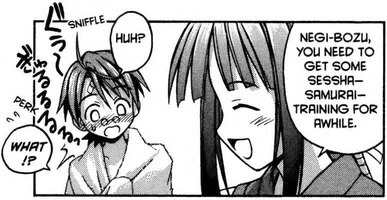
Tsujigiri, page 89

In the original text, Asuna says that she doesn't like what they're doing because it reminds her too much of tsujigiri. Tsujigiri refers to a time when samurais would sharpen their swordsmanship skills on people on the street, a clearly dishonorable act.



はぅぅっ
THROW AROUND MAGIC OUT IN THE OPEN LIKE THIS? NOT A GOOD IDEA. WE WAIT.
I HATE THIS SNEAKING AROUND. IT'S DISHONORABLE. BESIDES, SHE'S A CLASSMATE.

Sessha, page 107

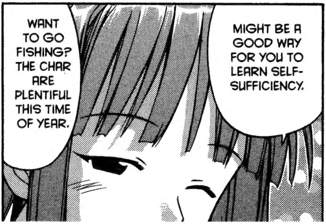


NEGI-BOZU, YOU NEED TO GET SOME SESSHA—SAMURAI—TRAINING FOR AWHILE.
HUH?
SNIFFLE
ぐら〜
PERK
WHAT!?

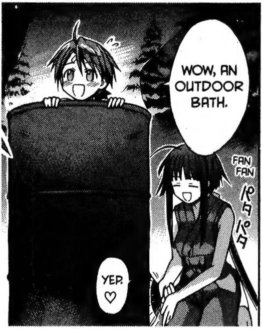
Remember this term from volume 2? Just in case you don't: Sessha is a condescending word that samurai used to refer to themselves. It also refers to a character from a book written in the seventeenth century who assisted women down on their luck.

Char, page 107

A char is a fish you might catch in a mountain stream in the summer in Japan or China.



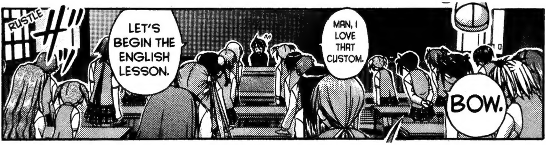
MIGHT BE A GOOD WAY FOR YOU TO LEARN SELF-SUFFICIENCY.
WANT TO GO FISHING? THE CHAR ARE PLENTIFUL THIS TIME OF YEAR.



WOW, AN OUTDOOR BATH.
FAN FAN
パタパタ
YEP. ♡

Baths, page 111

As you might know, baths and hot springs are very popular in Japan. Outdoor baths, not necessarily in this style, can be found in the forests and mountains in resorts towns such as Gerou, in Gifu Prefecture.



MAN, I LOVE THAT CUSTOM.
LET'S BEGIN THE ENGLISH LESSON.
RUSTLE
BOW.

Bowing, page 140

Note that all of the girls are bowing as Negi takes his place at the front of the classroom. This is a daily custom in Japanese primary and secondary schools, and is intended as a sign of respect and gratitude to the teacher.

BLOOD FEUD WITH A VAMPIRE

There is a vampire stalking the night! Normally, ten-year-old teacher/magician Negi Springfield would have no problem dispatching such a villain, but this vampire has a magic-enhancing partner—and worse, the vampire is a student in his own class! Now he must find a partner of his own, but with a class full of beautiful girls all vying for the position, it won't be an easy task. Add in Negi's old friend, a skirt-chasing, wisecracking weasel from Wales, and the nice, orderly chaos of Negi's life turns into a hilarious melee of sirens and sorcery!

Includes special extras after the story!
